

A top 10 Commercial bank in the US, Capital One has over $50B in commercial loans outstanding and manages more than $30B in deposit balances. Capital One offers a unique combination of product expertise, financial strength, personal attention and creative solutions.

Capital One's Not-for-Profit banking group has more than 75 years of combined service in the sector. We are dedicated to supporting the needs of all types of nonprofit organizations throughout the Mid-Atlantic, including local and national associations, foundations, charitable organizations, religious and educational institutions and cultural arts institutions. We understand the unique needs of nonprofits and through a relationship-based banking model seamlessly deliver a full array of taxable and tax-exempt financing, treasury management and investment services tailored to meet your organizations requirements.

Capital One is locally headquartered in the Washington DC metro area, giving you direct access to local decision makers. Get one-on-one guidance from a dedicated relationship manager and team of seasoned professions that live and work in your local community and will use their expertise to meet and anticipate your needs. At Capital One, we know that every business has its own challenges and opportunities and our focus is on getting to know the way you operate and understanding where you want your business to go.