Helping Nonprofits Advance Their Missions

Gelman, Rosenberg & Freedman CPAs is a proud sponsor of the Excellence in Chief Executive Leadership (EXCEL) award. Since the firm's inception our team has supported Washington DC-area nonprofits. Our participation in this annual program helps us demonstrate our commitment to helping dedicated nonprofits achieve financial success to advance their missions.

This competitive award recognizes the achievements of up to three outstanding nonprofit leaders in the metropolitan region. Each winner receives a $5,000 professional development account to use in his or her role as an organization's chief executive.

Each winning organization also receives a $2,000 grant to provide professional development opportunities for its staff.

2014 EXCEL Winners and Nominees

Announcements of the winners and up to two honorable mentions will be made at the Center's annual celebration.

Please visit http://www.grfcpa.com/about/community\_service/excel-award/ to learn more about this award and how you can nominate a chief executive.

Candidates must demonstrate leadership achievement in the areas of innovation, motivation, community building, ethical integrity and strategic leadership. The competition is open to any paid chief executive of a Washington-area nonprofit organization with an annual budget of up to $10 million.

The 2015 nomination period opens Friday, June 5, 2015 and continues until Friday, July 17, 2015. Nominations may be made on the website of the Center for Nonprofit Advancement, the award administrator.
