

AHT Insurance is a full service insurance brokerage and consulting firm founded in 1921. AHT has been recognized as one of the “100 Largest Brokers of U.S. Business” as ranked by Business Insurance magazine and maintains a number of superb, nationally recognized practice groups.

AHT Nonprofits is the agency’s largest practice group, working with nonprofit organizations nation-wide. AHT employs over 160 professional among our offices in Northern Virginia, Seattle, New York, and Chicago, creating a multi-regional presence benefiting our clients.

AHT is an independent, private enterprise. As an ESOP, AHT has a strong culture of ownership and accountability. Everyone at AHT has a stake in the company and its success. It is our strong belief that firms established to provide professional services such as ours should avoid the inherent conflicts that arise from the public markets. AHT takes the view that serving the long-term interest of our clients will align well with our business interests.

AHT leverages technology to faster and better service responses, providing our clients better insight into the risks they face and how to manage them. The tools we utilize have been developed over time with a constant eye towards evolving them to improve their functionality, efficiency and effectiveness for our clients.

AHT enjoys insurance market relationships that are unique. We have the attention of senior management for every major insurer that focuses resources towards providing special products and services for nonprofits. Time and time again, these relationships, cultivated over years, have proven invaluable to AHT and our clients.

