At TD Bank, we have a team of seven bankers who work with not for profit organizations. Headquartered in Greater Washington and Baltimore, the team is lead by Patti Lenahan and has combined experience of well over 100 years. Our professionals understand the unique not-for-profit sector, and we work side by side with clients to craft financial solutions customized to achieve their goals. In addition, TD has two teams dedicated to serving not-for-profits in New York City and Boston. All three teams share ideas and best practices.
