

Effective January 1, 2016, Veris Consulting's accounting, survey research and primary market research divisions have become Vault Consulting. An experienced group of forensic consultants will continue as Veris Consulting, while Vault Consulting moves forward to provide top-quality outsourced accounting and full-service research programs for associations, nonprofits and their affiliates.

The name Vault represents assurance, expertise and a commitment to provide partners with steadfast support, secure handling of sensitive information and the resourceful counsel necessary to transform information into action.

Our practice groups include, Outsourced Accounting – CFO and general accounting services, general ledger maintenance and transactional support, internal control and process reviews, and nonprofit expertise; Survey Research – industry market reports, benchmarking studies, member needs assessments, advocacy surveys, and primary market research.
