

Heidi Abegg
Senior Counsel, Webster, Chamberlain & Bean, LLP

Heidi focuses her practice on the representation of non-profit organizations, including charities, social welfare organizations, professional societies, trade associations, and for-profit and non-profit organizations related to running and road racing.

She advises clients on all areas of business, transactional and contract law, as well as federal, state and local campaign finance laws, lobbying registration and reporting requirements, government ethics requirements, as well as privacy issues, including financial and medical privacy laws, security breach laws, and employment and general corporate matters.