

Katie Bergmann, Zelos Director of Nonprofit Services

Katie Bergmann, IOM, CAE, CPC is the Director of Nonprofit Services for Zelos, LLC and its brand PATHZ – A Professional Growth Challenge®. She is also the founder of Piko Resources, LLC, and a certified professional coach dedicated to igniting positive and productive work environments through culture innovation, integrated change management and leadership development.

Katie has over 20 years' experience as an executive serving both the for-profit and nonprofit sectors across all business disciplines. She has extensive experience with Executive Boards, Boards of Directors, strategic partnerships, and merger and acquisition integrations. She has earned the designation of Energy Leadership Index Master Practitioner and is certified in EQ-i 2.0 and EQ-i 360 Assessments.

Katie earned her MBA from Northern Kentucky University and BS in Accounting from the University of Kentucky. She is a Certified Association Executive (CAE) and a graduate of the US Chamber Institute of Organizational Management (IOM). Katie was named one of the 2017 Trending 40 – Top Association Innovators in Washington, DC.