

Kirra L. Jarratt
Executive Director, DC Bar Foundation

Kirra L. Jarratt has served as the Executive Director of DC Bar Foundation since January 2014. D.C. Bar Foundation supports access to justice efforts in the District of Columbia through its grants to nonprofit organizations and programs that meet the civil legal needs of the District's low-income community, as well as through training and technical assistance.

Ms. Jarratt, formerly a legislative counsel in the Governmental Affairs Office of the American Bar Association, also served as general counsel for the D.C. Department of Youth Rehabilitation Services and as assistant general counsel at the D.C. Child and Family Services Agency.

In addition, she served as counsel on the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee and as legislative director for Congresswoman Eleanor Holmes Norton. She also founded the law firm of Jarratt & Jarratt, PLLC, where she litigated child welfare and family law cases.

Ms. Jarratt is a graduate of Harvard and Radcliffe Colleges and the University of Michigan Law School.
