

Peggy Smith, SCRIP, SGMS-T
President and CEO, Worldwide ERC

Peggy Smith, SCRIP, SGMS-T is President and CEO of Worldwide ERC®. She is a strategic and adventurous leader with a keen eye for fresh concepts and solutions-oriented insight, who has extended the reach of the organization within the APAC, EMEA and LATAM regions. Under her guidance, Worldwide ERC® delivers next-gen content, community and engagement to talent management and mobility professionals.

Peggy has guest-lectured on talent mobility at Georgetown University and Seattle University, and is a contributing writer to the NACE Foundation. She also is an active member of the Forbes Nonprofit Council and an often-quoted thought leader on Forbes.com. A frequent keynoter and expert panelist at mobility and HR-related conferences around the world, Peggy shares her lens on global workforce issues, talent and skills shortages, multi-generational workplace considerations, and future mobility strategy.

Ms. Smith holds a BA in Marketing from Seattle University.