

Sarah McConnell
Johnson Lambert

As a Partner at Johnson Lambert, Sarah McConnell manages all aspects of performing financial statement audits and consulting engagements. She specializes in serving not-for-profit organizations, and is also a leader in the firm's insurance and employee benefit plan practices, in the Mid-Atlantic area. Her experience includes audits for publicly traded companies and providing consultation services regarding internal control and business operations. She is a frequent presenter and program leader for training courses on audit and accounting issues specific to not for profit organizations. Sarah serves on the Board of Directors for Classroom Champions, Inc. She received her Masters and Bachelors in Business Administration from Loyola College in Maryland. Prior to joining Johnson Lambert in 2005, Sarah worked at Ernst & Young performing integrated audits as well as providing audit and tax services to clients in several industries. Throughout her career, Sarah has held many leadership roles within the firm, community and industries she serves including being a member of the AICPA Insurance Expert Panel.