

Susan Colladay
Audit and Assurance Services, Tate & Tryon

Susan Colladay is a partner in the Audit and Assurance Services practice of Tate & Tryon with more than 25 years of experience providing audit, accounting, and advisory services to nonprofit organizations. Ms. Colladay leads the audit engagements for several large nonprofit clients with federal awards (single audits) and employee benefit plans. She also leads several other engagements related to outsourced internal audit services, internal control audits, and enterprise risk management.

Susan spearheaded the development of the Firm's women's initiatives network known as WIN@T&T, which is a discussion group whose goal is to provide support and mentorship opportunities for women in management positions at Tate & Tryon. Ms. Colladay also moderates a discussion group known as Women Leaders in Nonprofit Finance which provides a space for women in executive finance positions at nonprofits to make personal connections with one another so that they can learn from and support each other.

Susan serves on the Board of Directors for the Greater Washington Society of CPAs (GWSCPA) and the Mindful Memorial Day Foundation. She is a recipient of the GWSCPA's 2015 Women to Watch Award which is bestowed upon women who have made notable contributions to the accounting profession and the development of women as leaders.

Ms. Colladay holds a BS in Accounting from the University of Maryland and a BA in Mathematics from Hood College.
