

Tom Harlow is a seasoned association executive with over 30 years in association management in three different non-profit organizations. Currently the Executive Vice President of Operations for the Conference of State Bank Supervisors, Tom oversees accounting, HR, meetings, board governance and strategic planning. Tom is a CPA and a CAE. He is serving his final year on the FAR Board as the immediate past chair.